SHYLA KOWDLE

A native of Bangalore, I have a commerce and cost accounting background. I worked for the Government of India, Income tax department for 8 years. I then relocated to Japan and later to US with my family.

My tryst with brushes and paints started early as a heed to my inner call and has now blossomed into a passion and profession. Exploring the different art forms using newer techniques, is exciting!

I work with mediums like Acrylic, Watercolour, Charcoal, Coffee, Pastels, Colour Pencils, and Oil among others. I love painting Lord Krishna, Ganesha & Wildlife apart from Kerala Murals, Portraits and Flora.

Canvas Stories

"Canvas Stories" is a Bangalore based initiative by international fine artist Shyla Kowdle, with the sole aim of promoting art at all levels. Canvas stories was an idea born to identify and capture every unique story on canvas by artists.

Several good artists even today struggle to reach their stories on canvas to good galleries, exhibitions, art audiences and eventually informed art buyers in India and abroad.

Canvas Stories wishes to foster a unique ecosystem and be the launch pad to several artists by identifying, harnessing their art potentials.

Through meaningful networks, several artists associated with Canvas Stories can collaborate to desired goals. Canvas Stories endeavours to incubate, curate and unleash the art story in all.
